

Dr. Kevin Hannigan

PROFESSIONAL DETAILS

Qualifications

1996	PhD (Economics), Trinity College, Dublin
1990	MA Economics, University College Dublin
1989	BA (Hons) Economics and Politics, UCD
2000	Diploma in Applied Finance, Irish Management Institute
1999	Postgraduate Diploma in Statistics, Trinity College

Career Experience

- 1996 to date Principal Consultant, KHSK Economic Consultants
- Founded independent consultancy in 1996, operated successfully since then
 - Manage projects, form and manage teams and consortia
 - Undertake projects as sole or lead contractor or in consortia.
- 2011 to date Associate Faculty, School of Business, National University of Ireland Maynooth
- Develop and deliver economics courses at M.Sc. level
 - Supervise projects and dissertations.
- 2000 to date Associate Faculty, Irish Management Institute
- Contribute to new course design and development
 - Deliver course modules at Diploma, Degree and Masters levels.
- 1997 to 2014 Economist, Peter Bacon Ltd., Economic Consultants
- Undertook projects on a contractual basis with Peter Bacon for many years
 - Organised teams and managed larger projects
 - Numerous published studies.
- 1997 to 2000 Head of Research, Irish Management Institute
- Developed new research programme
 - Co-ordinated research and managed research agenda
 - Contributed to and taught on IMI development programmes.
- 1994 to 1997 Senior Economist, National Economic and Social Council
- Contributed to development of NESC research agenda

- Undertook research and presented to Council
- Prepared reports for publication.

1991 to 1994 Lecturer, Department of Banking and Commerce, University of Ulster, Coleraine, Northern Ireland

- Developed and delivered courses at Degree and Masters levels
- Assessed coursework and end-of-year exams
- Supervised Masters dissertations.

1990 to 1991 Teaching Assistant, Department of Economics, Trinity College

- Lectured and supervised undergraduate students
- Assessed coursework and end-of-year exams.

Awards & Scholarships

1990-92 Irish–American Partnership Scholarship
1987 UCD College Prize in Economics

Consultancy Experience:

My consultancy experience has covered in a range of areas, in particular, investment appraisal, regulation and policy evaluation. Clients have been from the private and public sector clients in sectors such as transport, energy, health, the marine, tourism, natural resources and waste management.

Details on studies undertaken and the full text of those that have been published are available on www.khsk.ie. A list of list of publications is also available on that site.